

Applying for Allocated Point Tournaments

As announced in our Program Announcement News Blog, Community Tournament organizers have the ability to distribute points that will directly impact the WoW Arena World Championship. To request that your event is approved to distribute points, fill out this form and email it to WoWEsportsAdmin@Blizzard.com for review at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the first match of the event. For events with a prize pool over $10,000USD or equivalent, please fill out this form at least twenty (20) business days prior to your scheduled event announcement. Applications submitted less than fifteen (15) business days before the start of the event will not be reviewed, and applications may take up to ten (10) business days to review. For additional information on the WoW Arena World Championship, please review the official rules here. All approved events must also follow all rules in the Blizzard Community Tournament guidelines.

When creating a tournament which will be incorporated into the World of Warcraft Arena World Championship, the match format and ruling shall require the following Blizzard Official Ruling and Format to be eligible to reward qualification points:

Composition and Available Map Pool

Team compositions must not have:

- More than one healer
- More than one tank

All maps need to be available for play.

Comp/Map Choosing Format – The following procedure must be followed for all point allocating tournaments:

- First Game of a Series shall be composition Blind Picks on Nagrand Arena.
- Second and Subsequent Games – (The following decisions must be announced to the opposing teams) Losing team chooses map, Winning team locks in composition, then the losing team locks composition – in this order.

Players may not use known bugs in the tournament matches, as determined by Blizzard.
