

29.06.2018

Earlier this week, the Contenders Tournament Administration was informed of a situation where ineligible players were competing in a Contenders Australia Trials match on the INTERstella team. After investigation, these allegations were confirmed to be true.

As a result, INTERstella has been disqualified and the final standings of the tournament have been updated accordingly as follows:

Rank	Team	Match Record	Game Record
1 st	Tainted Minds	7-0	24-6
2 nd	Serenity	6-1	22-7
3 rd	PIXL eSports	4-3	19-9
4 th	Bin Chickens	4-3	18-10
5 th	Surge ESC	4-3	16-12
6 th	INTERstella	3-4	11-17
7 th	Peeps Angels	0-6	0-24
8 th	Alter Ego	0-6	0-24

Due to this update, PIXL esports will move into 3rd Place overall, seeding them into Group B for Contenders Season 2. Bin Chickens will move into 4th Place overall, seeding them into Group A for Contenders Season 2. Surge ESC will move into 5th Place overall, removing their qualification for Season 2.

Your understanding is appreciated surrounding this unfortunate situation.

Sincerely,

-Overwatch Contenders Tournament Administration