BlizzCon Viewing Party

Make the most of your BlizzCon Virtual Ticket experience this year by hosting a Virtual Ticket viewing party! BlizzCon is best enjoyed with friends, so gather yours together for a day (or two!) of revelry as you catch all the action from the comfort of home. We've assembled a list of tips for throwing your very own epic event—read on and get to planning!

A vibrant, action-packed illustration featuring several iconic Blizzard characters. In the upper left, a large blue robotic figure (Mecha) is shown. Next to it is a purple-skinned demon (Succubus) holding a glowing purple gem. To the right is a green orc head with sharp teeth. Further right is a red, horned demon (Hellfire). In the lower left, a young woman with brown hair and a blue jacket is shown in a dynamic pose, surrounded by floating gold coins. In the lower right, a cowboy character (Cait) is shown holding a large, glowing gun. The central focus is a large yellow banner with the text "BLIZZCON VIRTUAL TICKET" in bold, black, stylized letters. The background is a bright, fiery orange and yellow gradient.

Create Your Game Plan

Hosting a party is no small feat, but with proper planning, you can make it look easy. Here are some important things to consider when planning your party:

Menu

What kinds of grub will you serve up for your guests? Will you be cooking or catering? Remember to take any food allergies and dietary restrictions into account! If you're looking for ideas, check out the Hearthstone Innkeeper Cookbook.

Cheddar-Beer Dip

Bake time: 15 mins Makes: 1 batch

Pairs well with: Essential Brewfest Pretzels, and Spicy Vegetable Chips

2 tablespoons salted butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup pale low-hop beer, such as a pilsner
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon mustard
 $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon garlic powder
 $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon paprika
Dash of Worcestershire sauce
3 cups sharp cheddar cheese, shredded
Salt and pepper to taste

In a medium frying pan, melt the butter over medium heat. Whisk in the flour and cook for a minute or two, until the mixture has turned a nice golden color. While whisking, gradually pour in the beer then the milk, both of which should thicken as they heat. Remove from heat and stir in the spices, Worcestershire sauce, and the cheese. Let the cheese melt; season to taste with salt and pepper.

COOK'S NOTE: For a peppier sauce, try a spicier cheese like a pepperjack. Or, for a creamy, more tangy sauce, add a little goat cheese. Innovate to your tastes!

Buzzard Bites

Prep time: 20 mins Bake time: About 20 mins Makes: About 2 dozen

Pairs well with: Cheesy Garlic Pasta, Hot Apple Cider

1 pound ground turkey
½ cup bread crumbs
½ heaping cup crumbled bacon
1 egg
2 tablespoons onion powder
2 tablespoons garlic powder

SAUCE

1½ cups apple cider
1 cup ketchup
½ cup balsamic vinegar
Generous pinch each salt,
pepper, and nutmeg

1. Preheat the oven to 375°F and line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Combine all the ingredients in a large bowl and mix until evenly distributed—hands are the best tool for this. Form into small meatballs, roughly the size of a golf ball, and place on the prepared baking sheet, spacing about 1½ inches apart. Bake for 18 to 20 minutes, until no longer pink in the middle.
3. While the bites are baking, make the sauce.

SAUCE: Combine all ingredients in a saucepan and simmer for about 30 minutes, or until it has thickened somewhat. Remove from heat and add the meatballs, stirring and turning to make sure they are all covered. Serve warm.

Spicy Vegetable Chips

Prep time: 20 mins Bake time: About 45 mins Makes: 4 servings

Pairs well with: Cheddar-Beer Dip

1 parsnip	2 tablespoons olive oil
1 carrot	$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon mild chili powder
1 medium sweet potato	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon coarse salt, plus
1 raw beet	more for sprinkling

1. Preheat oven to 300°F, and line several baking sheets with parchment paper.
2. Thinly slice all vegetables using a mandolin slicer or a sharp knife, and toss with the olive oil, chili, and salt—keep the parsnips and sweet potato separate from the beets so the red color doesn't get all over the other veggies. Let any excess oil drip back into the bowl, then lay the chips out on the baking sheets in a single layer that doesn't overlap too much.
3. Baking the chips will work best if similar veggies are put on the same baking sheet, so pair the carrot and parsnip, and give the sweet potato and the beet their own sheets. Bake for about 30 minutes, then check for doneness. The chips should be mostly dry to the touch when done and crispy. Remove chips as they finish baking, and continue to check the rest until the whole batch is finished. Allow to cool before eating, and sprinkle with a little extra salt.

COOK'S NOTE: Many, many vegetables make delicious chips, but the baking times for each may vary. Keep a close eye on them to make sure they don't burn.

Emergency Coolant

Prep time: 5 mins Makes: 1 serving

Pairs well with: Pickle slices; salty snacks; orange wedges

3 ounces blue sports drink

1½ ounces tequila

Juice of ½ a lemon

Splash of blue curaçao for extra color

Ice

Lemon sherbet or sorbet

Lemon slice for garnishing

1. Combine the sports drink, tequila, lemon juice, and curaçao in a cocktail shaker with some ice and give it a few good shakes to combine.

2. Strain into a rocks glass or tumbler, and top with a few small scoops of lemon sherbet.

3. Garnish with a lemon slice.

Naxxramas Nachos

Prep time: 10 mins Bake time: About 10 mins Makes: 2 to 4 servings

Pairs well with: Beer; BBQ meats; several companions

One 10- to 13-ounce bag blue corn chips
1 red onion, diced
½ medium green bell pepper, diced
1 jalapeño pepper, minced
1 cup black beans
1 cup green salsa
One 8½-ounce can artichoke hearts, drained and quartered
1 medium avocado, diced
¼ cup sliced kalamata olives
8 ounces shredded cheddar cheese

1. Preheat the oven to 375°F.
2. Begin assembling the nachos by layering about half the chips on a baking sheet.
3. Spread half the toppings on them, followed by the rest of the chips and then the remaining toppings.
4. Bake for about 10 minutes, until the cheese is melting and bubbly.
5. Transfer to a serving platter or plates and enjoy warm.

You Are Not Prepared...Yet!

There will be plenty of items on your to-do list, but you'll conquer them all! Start crossing items off one-by-one in advance to avoid stress on the day of the party. Consider the following:

Create Ambience

Put some thought into creating an epic atmosphere for your tavern. Consider decorating the room your guests will be in with your favorite Blizzard swag, printed decorations, or candles (the kobold-free variety). If you need playlist inspiration, check out playlists and official soundtracks from your favorite Blizzard games on Spotify and Apple Music.
